CHARLESTON SUBSTATION

ELFVATTON VEW

The image shows a page from a handwritten ledger or account book. The page is ruled with horizontal lines and has vertical lines that create columns. There are approximately 10 columns and 20 rows of text. The handwriting is in a cursive script, typical of the 18th or 19th century. The text is dense and fills most of the page. The paper appears aged and slightly discolored. The overall layout is that of a formal record-keeping document.
